JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Plaintiff alleges:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. These claims arise under the laws of the United States, particularly under the federal Lanham Act (15 U.S.C. § 1051 et seq.), and under the laws of the State of California, including California common law. Jurisdiction is proper under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1138(a). Jurisdiction is also proper pursuant to the Court's supplemental

1 jurisdiction as provided in 28 U.S.C. § 1367 in that the state law claims alleged herein are 2 so related to the federal claims that they form part of the same case or controversy under 3 Article III of the United States Constitution.

4 4. This Court has specific personal jurisdiction over all of the defendants as 5 each has purposefully committed, within the state, the acts from which these claims
6 arise and/or has committed tortious acts outside California, knowing and intending 7 that such acts would cause injury within the state.

8 5. Venue is proper in the United States District Court for the Central 9 District pursuant to 28 U.S. C. §§ 1391(b) and 1391(c) in that some defendants
10 reside in this District, transact affairs in this District and that a substantial part of the 11 events or omissions giving rise to the claims herein occurred within this District.

12 THE PARTIES

13 6. Plaintiff Abel De Luna (hereinafter, “plaintiff” or “plaintiff De Luna”) is 14 a United States citizen and resident of the state of California.

15 7. Defendant Carlos N. Quintana (hereinafter “defendant” or “defendant
16 Quintana”) is a resident of the state of California. Plaintiff is informed and believes
17 that defendant Quintana is a citizen of Peru.

18 8. The DOE defendants are individuals or entities whose identity is 19 unknown at the time of filing of this Complaint, and who will be identified as soon
20 as their identities are ascertained. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based upon 21 such information and belief alleges, that each of the defendants, including the DOE
22 defendants, are responsible for the actions complained of herein and that in so
23 acting, the defendants were acting as the agents of the remaining defendants.

24 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

25 9. The musical group Sonora Tropicana was founded in or about 1985.
26 Plaintiff Abel de Luna became the organizer, manager and owner of the musical 27 group on or before approximately 1989, and from that time has exercised exclusive 28 ownership and control over the live entertainment services of the musical group as

1 well as the sound recordings of the group.

2 10. Plaintiff Abel de Luna is the owner of the United States registrations of 3 the SONORA TROPICANA mark, in international class 41 for services, namely,
4 live performances by a musical band, Reg. No. 4,427,642, and in international class
5 9 for goods, namely, pre-recorded CDs, video tapes, laser disks and DVDs featuring 6 pre-recorded music, Reg. No. 3,586,288. For both registrations, the drawing of 7 plaintiff's mark is rendered as follows:

12 (Fig. 1: stylized SONORA TROPICANA mark.)

13 11. Defendant Carlos N. Quintana is a musician whose musical group
14 performs under the name SONORA TROPICAL, as well as variations on the 15 SONORA TROPICAL name, including “La Internacional Sonora Tropical de Carlos
16 Quintana” (“The International Sonora Tropical of Carlos Quintana”), “La
17 Internacional Sonora Tropical” (“The International Sonora Tropical”), “Carlos 18 Quintana y la Internacional ‘Sonora Tropicana’” (“Carlos Quintana and the 19 International ‘Sonora Tropicana’”) and “Carlos Quintana y su Sonora Tropical”
20 (“Carlos Quintana and his Sonora Tropical”). According to defendant, he has been 21 using the Sonora Tropical name in its current iteration since 2014.

22 12. Frequently, the name “Sonora Tropical” used by defendant and 23 appearing in print ads in connection with advertisements for the performances by his 24 musical group, appears in stylized lettering similar to the stylized lettering in 25 plaintiff's registered mark.

26 13. The salient term in plaintiff's registered mark is the term SONORA
27 TROPICANA.

28 14. The salient term in the marks used by defendant's musical group is the

1 term SONORA TROPICAL.

2 15. The “Sonora Tropical” name used by defendant is confusingly similar to 3 plaintiff’s registered SONORA TROPICANA marks under the “sight, sound and 4 meaning” test.

5 16. Plaintiff’s SONORA TROPICANA mark is an arbitrary word derived
6 from the word “Tropic” and is therefore a strong mark.

7 17. Defendant’s mark is similar to plaintiff’s registered SONORA
8 TROPICANA marks, and defendant has used the word “Sonora Tropical” in his 9 advertising in a way that imitates the stylized lettering of plaintiff’s marks.

10 18. The services of plaintiff’s musical group are related to the services of 11 defendant’s musical group in that they both operate in the Latin music arena,
12 directed to Spanish-speaking consumers of such music.

13 19. The marketing channels of the services of plaintiff’s musical group are 14 similar to, or the same as, the marketing channels in which defendant’s musical 15 group renders its services.

16 20. As both plaintiff’s musical group and defendant’s musical group are 17 directed to similar audiences, the degree of care that consumers may be expected to 18 exercise when seeing or hearing advertisements for defendant’s musical group is not
19 expected to be such that they can distinguish the difference between the two groups
20 based upon the names alone.

21 21. Plaintiff is informed and believes that there are instances of actual 22 confusion with plaintiff’s musical group created by defendant’s use of the “Sonora
23 Tropical” term in connection with the advertising and services of defendant’s 24 musical group.

25 22. The likelihood of defendant expanding his services into product lines
26 that conflict with plaintiff’s SONORA TROPICANA mark is highly likely, given 27 plaintiff’s long-time use of the SONORA TROPICANA mark in connection with 28 goods, namely physical CDs, DVDs, etc., as well as with services.

23. Plaintiff is informed and believes that defendant's intent in selecting the "Sonora Tropical" mark for his musical group was to create an association with plaintiff's musical group "Sonora Tropicana" of long standing. Among other factors, plaintiff is informed and believes that one of the current iterations of the name defendant uses in connection with his musical group, i.e. "Carlos Quintana y su Sonora Tropical" ("Carlos Quintana and his Sonora Tropical") may suggest to consumers that there is more than one "Sonora Tropical" and that defendant's musical group is one of them. Given the proximity of defendant's name to the SONORA TROPICANA name that plaintiff owns and has used for over two decades, that suggestion may include the idea that defendant's group is a sister group or successor to plaintiff's group.

24. The activities of defendant stand to irreparably harm plaintiff and his SONORA TROPICANA mark, including the stylized SONORA TROPICANA mark plaintiff's group has used for well over two decades, by using defendant's "Sonora Tropical" name, a confusingly similar mark to that of plaintiff. The additional of defendant's personal name to the advertising for the goods and services of his musical group does not eliminate the confusion; it simply gives the impression that the goods and services of defendant's musical group "Sonora Tropical" is affiliated with plaintiff's musical group.

25. Defendant can be expected to continue using the "Sonora Tropical" mark to plaintiff's harm unless enjoined by this Court.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF (FEDERAL TRADEMARK INFRINGEMENT AND UNFAIR COMPETITION)

26. Plaintiff realleges and incorporate in this claim all previous paragraphs of this complaint.

27. This claim for relief arises under 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a)(1)(A).

28. Defendant's mark "Sonora Tropical" and its various iterations used by

1 defendant over a period of time are likely to cause confusion with plaintiff's
2 SONORA TROPICANA mark so as to cause the members of the relevant public to
3 believe that defendant's musical group is associated with or sponsored by plaintiff
4 and plaintiff's musical group "Sonora Tropicana."

5 29. Plaintiff alleges on information and belief that defendants' actions have 6 led to instances of actual confusion by promoters and consumers.

7 30. Defendant's actions constitute unfair competition in violation of section
8 43(a) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a).

9 31. The actions of defendants, as alleged herein, have caused, or are likely to 10 cause, damage to plaintiff's reputation and mark.

11 32. The actions of defendants and each of them as herein alleged were and 12 are intended to cause confusion, have caused confusion, and will continue to cause
13 confusion unless enjoined.

14 33. For each act of unfair competition, plaintiffs are entitled to recover
15 actual damages as well as defendants' profits from such infringement.

16 34. Plaintiff is entitled to treble damages.

17 35. Plaintiffs are informed and believe that the acts of defendants 18 complained of herein have been undertaken willfully and with the intention of 19 causing confusion, mistake or deception.

20 36. Monetary relief alone is not adequate to address fully the irreparable 21 injury that defendants' actions have caused and will continue to cause plaintiff if 22 defendants' actions are not enjoined. Plaintiff therefore is also entitled to 23 preliminary and permanent injunctive relief to stop defendants' ongoing acts of 24 unfair competition.

25 SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF

26 (STATE LAW COMMON LAW AND STATUTORY TRADE NAME 27 INFRINGEMENT AND DILUTION, AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

28 37. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates in this claim all previous paragraphs

1 of this complaint.

2 38. This claim for relief arises under the laws of the State of California and 3 is alleged against all defendants.

4 39. By their acts alleged herein, defendants have engaged in trade name
5 infringement and dilution, California Bus. & Prof. Code §§ 14330 et seq., and §§
6 14402 et seq.

7 40. Plaintiff is informed and believes that defendants have intentionally
8 deceived the public by misrepresenting that the services of defendant's musical 9 group are connected with plaintiffs' musical group and sound recordings by use of a 10 confusingly similar name.

11 41. Plaintiffs are informed and believe that the acts of defendants described 12 herein were undertaken willfully and with the intention of causing confusion,
13 mistake or deception.

14 42. Monetary relief alone is not adequate to address fully the irreparable
15 injury that defendants' illegal actions have caused and will continue to cause
16 plaintiffs if defendants' conduct is not enjoined. Plaintiffs therefore are also entitled 17 to preliminary and permanent injunctive relief to stop defendants' ongoing acts of 18 unfair competition.

19 THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF
20 (ACCOUNTING, AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

21 43. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates in this claim all previous paragraphs
22 of this complaint.

23 44. This claim for relief arises under the common law of the State of 24 California and is alleged against all defendants.

25 45. Defendants are in possession of information relating to monies paid to 26 defendants from their actions described herein. The books, accounts, records,
27 ledgers, etc. which will provide this information are in the possession of defendants
28 and each of them. The amount of damages, profits and interest owing to plaintiffs

1 from defendants cannot be ascertained without an accounting by defendants and 2 each of them.

3 46. Plaintiffs hereby demand, and are entitled to, an accounting of all
4 monies received by defendants and each of them from their use of plaintiffs' mark
5 and trade name.

6 FOURTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF
7 (TEMPORARY, PRELIMINARY AND PERMANENT INJUNCTIVE
8 RELIEF, AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS)

9 47. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates in this claim all previous paragraphs
10 of this complaint.

11 48. The continuing acts of defendant herein have harmed and continue to 12 harm the interest of plaintiff in the use of the SONORA TROPICANA name and 13 marks. If this court does not issue a temporary, preliminary and permanent 14 injunction against defendants and each of them prohibiting the use of the name
15 "Sonora Tropical" in connection with the goods and services of defendant's musical 16 group, plaintiff will suffer irreparable harm for which there is no adequate remedy at 17 law.

18 PRAYER

19 WHEREFORE, plaintiff prays for relief as follows:

20 1. For an order requiring defendants to show cause, if they have any, why
21 they should not be enjoined as set forth below, during the pendency of this action.

22 2. For a temporary restraining order, a preliminary injunction, and a
23 permanent injunction, all enjoining defendants and each of them and their agents, 24 servants, employees and co-venturers, and all persons in active concert or 25 participation with them who receive actual notice of the order by personal service
26 or otherwise, from engaging in or performing any of the following acts:

27 (a) Using the name SONORA TROPICANA, or any confusingly
28 similar or colorable imitation of the name, including the name "Sonora Tropical"

1 and any name which includes the term “Sonora Tropical,” in connection with
2 advertising in any form, or in connection with the goods or services of defendants
3 or any of them;

4 (b) Using the name SONORA TROPICANA or any confusingly
5 similar or colorable imitation of the name, including the term “Sonora Tropical”
6 and any name which includes the term “Sonora Tropical,” in any manner for the 7 purpose of enhancing the commercial value of the goods or services of defendants;

8 (c) Otherwise infringing or diluting the distinctive quality of 9 plaintiff’s service mark and trade name SONORA TROPICANA;

10 (d) Causing a likelihood of confusion, deception or mistake as to the 11 makeup, source, nature or quality of plaintiff’s or defendants’ services;

12 (e) Contacting promoters, advertisers or other businesses for the 13 purpose of offering the services of defendant and his musical group as SONORA
14 TROPICAL or any confusingly similar or colorable imitation of the name,
15 including any other name that includes the term “Sonora Tropical.”

16 3. For an order requiring defendants to deliver up and destroy all
17 promotional literature, advertising, goods and other material bearing the infringing,
18 diluting or injurious designations.

19 4. For actual damages according to proof.

20 5. For prejudgment interest.

21 6. For an accounting.

22 7. For costs of suit.

23 8. For reasonable attorney fees.

24 9. For such other relief as the court may deem appropriate.
